

The Root Problem

Trinitarianism is a “Jesus” religion masquerading as Christianity by piggybacking on the Scriptures just like Jehovah’s Witnesses and Seventh-day Adventists. And by persistently renouncing all others as false, it bolsters the deception that it’s the one that’s actually true. But the God of Trinitarianism isn’t the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, “I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God” (Jhn 20:17). And if our God is not the God of the Lord Jesus Christ, then the God of the Lord Jesus Christ is not our God, and the Lord Jesus Christ is not our Lord.

Trinitarianism is all about deluding people into thinking they’re Christians, then keeping them functioning in society as they speed headlong down the broad way leading to destruction. They give them a “Christian” Trinitarian God, “Christian” churches on almost every street corner, a “Christian” gospel message, endless streams of “Christian” sermons and “Christian” books, and “Christian” counseling along with prescribed medication for a whole slew of personal issues—abuse, anger, anxiety, codependency, depression, divorce, grief, loneliness, marriage, parenting, sexual, and trauma. It’s all about relieving the superficial symptoms of life without ever getting to the root problem—that the one true God is not their God, and they’re not keeping the commandments of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Trinitarian view of God was forced upon the world by the Roman the Catholic Church locking away the Scriptures, then executing millions of people that refused to conform. And Protestant “Christianity” is simply the offspring of her mother. Trinitarianism is all just part of this evil world system ruled by the devil: “the prince of this world” (Jhn 12:31, 14:30, 16:11); “keep them from the evil. They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world” (Jhn 17:15-16); “this present evil world” (Gal 1:4); “the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air” (Eph 2:2); “the rulers of the darkness of this world” (Eph 6:12); “the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe [trust] not” (2Co 4:4); “the whole world lieth in wickedness” (1Jo 5:19).

Eternal life is knowing the true God, “And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent” (Jhn 17:3). But if we don’t know the true God, then we don’t have eternal life and anything we do has no eternal significance whatsoever. What does it matter that we go to church every week, listen to sermons, pray regularly, stick to a daily Bible reading, memorize verses, sing praise music, serve in various ways, and give financially?

Salvation begins with the one true God being the God of our lives: “I will be their God” (Gen 17:8; Jer 24:7,32:38; Eze 11:20,37:23; Zec 8:8); “And they shall be my people, and I will be their God” (Jer 32:38); “ye shall be my people, and I will be your God” (Eze 36:28); “I will be their God, and they shall be my people” (Eze 37:27); “I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living” (Mat 22:32); “I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God” (Jhn 20:17); “Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also” (Rom 3:29); “I will be their God, and they shall be my people” (2Co 6:16); “I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people” (Heb 8:10); “God is not ashamed to be called their God” (Heb 11:16); “they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God” (Rev 21:3).

Paul told the elders at Ephesus, “For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.” (Act 20:29-30). And at the end of his life he told Timothy, “This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia be turned away from me” (2Ti 1:15). Everything he had poured himself into was almost completely gone. Of Christ’s messages to the seven churches, although a couple of them He didn’t reprove, all the others He did. There were only a few people saved in Sardis, “Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy” (Rev 3:4), and all in Laodicea were in danger, “So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth” (Rev 3:16). We’re greatly deceived if we think that for almost 2,000 years without the apostles, we finally have Christ’s church established! The sad reality is that there is no church in the world today. We’re almost at the end times when the true gospel will be preached again, and God will pour out His wrath upon this evil world.

The root problem is that “The Lord our God” is not our God, and we’re not keeping His commands, “Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord: And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength ... Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself” (Mar 12:29-31).
